SYNOPSIS OF PLAY

This play concerns a troubled Leprechaun from Ireland, who comes to New York seeking to save his homeland from the perils of progress. McGillicuddy McGotham (for short) comes to the O'Conner home for aid in changing the location of the future airport built in Leprechaun Land.

After a long, humorous struggle with many U. S. officials, McGillicuddy succeeds. After a fitting St. Patrick's Day celebration, Mr. McGotham returns to Ireland, a happy Leprechaun.

"If I only knew Karati . . ."

"Tottenhott and Snitwitz finally united."

"But they aren't GLASS slippers."

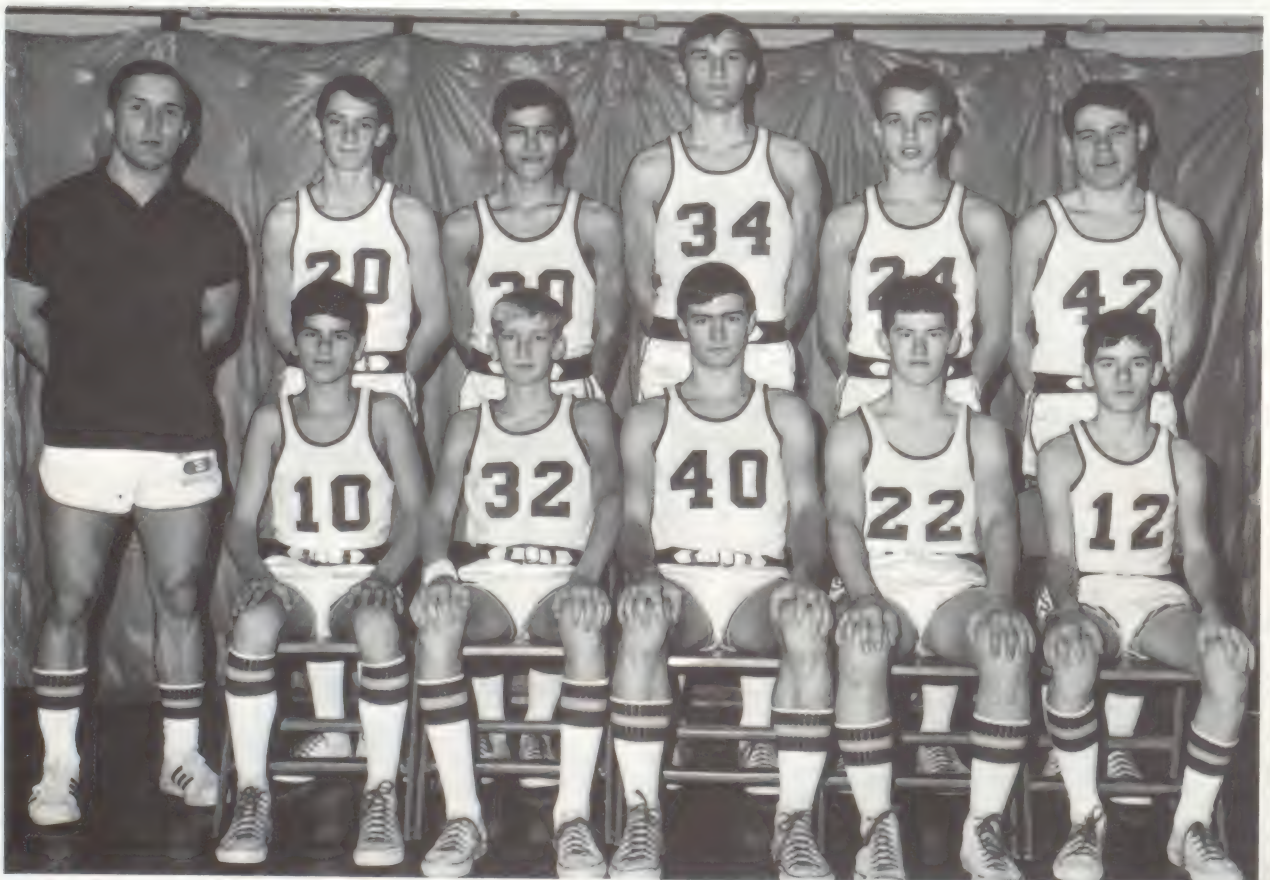

"I could have laughed all night."

"I ain't fishin' fer fish. I'm fishin' fer figgerin'."

"As a bank president, I have to be able to judge character at a glance."

"I'll sue! Clampett, I'm suing you for assault and battery!"

"Hey, let go of me, you . . ."

"Shocking! Shocking! They're fighting over her like beasts!"

"Now I got me a li'l ol' swindler!"

A HARD DAY'S NIGHT ON

Here are just a few of the gay couples tripping the light fantastic to the music of "The Mystic Quintet." Mrs. Holland seems to be having a wonderful time.

The "Senior Table" on the Island of Love. No names will be given to protect the innocent.

A panoramic view of the dance floor and the beautiful decorations made by the Class of '71. Note the activity around the refreshment center in back right corner. Hmmm?

THE ISLAND OF LOVE

SENIOR TRIP TO CHICAGO

On arrival—Chicago skyline and traffic.

Twenty-seven Seniors, Mrs. Holland and Wimpy in front of the Field Museum of Natural History. What ya hiding, Schmid?

First stop—Shedd Aquarium. Here Rae Huth observes some interesting specimens.

Time for a rest at the Museum of Science and Industry.

Betty Green, Jackie Colliver, Pat Torbert, Rae Huth, and Kim Morris ride the escalator. (It was free.)

After shopping in Old Town and attending a concert by "The Association", Seniors are still going strong at midnight on the way back home.

Good grief! Two Patsys?

Betty Green and Rae Huth make smiling reflections in the mirror.

Juniors Grant Karr and Mary Alice Lord escort the Seniors.

All Seniors (except Clem) in a solemn mood before going on stage.

Amid all the confusion, Bill Holt pauses for reflection.

Mr. Schettler gives some last minute instructions to Vernon Murphy and Roger Buggar.

Several Seniors chat while waiting to line up.

GRADUATION DAY

It's a time for joy,
A time for tears,
A time we'll remember through the years
We'll remember always—Graduation Day!

Though we leave in sorrow
All the joys we've known
We can face tomorrow—
Knowing we'll never walk alone!

The ivied walls are far behind,
But no matter where our paths may wind,
We'll remember always—Graduation Day!
